

The Freedom Programme three-day facilitator training event.
CPD Certified for 15 hours
Information

We welcome your interest in our facilitator training. However, before you complete the rest of the booking form please read this information very carefully.

We want to be sure that all applicants are familiar with the Freedom Programme and understand exactly what the training entails. During one event three women decided not to return to their partners. So, if you have no experience of the programme and have not read 'Living with the Dominator, please email info@freedomprogramme.co.uk and we will send you free log in details for the online course which incorporates the book.

The Freedom Programme contains robust language. If swearing offends you, please do not apply. The training takes the form of group discussions. We do not use Power Point, DVDs or post it notes. Most of the statistics quoted in our literature have not changed since our books were published so we have not updated them.

This training enables participants to facilitate the Freedom Programme, not to train other facilitators.

The trainer reserves the right to refuse to train anyone who does not behave in a pleasant and cooperative manner.

When we arrange an event, we wait until we have enough applications before we confirm that it we will go ahead with the event. If this does not happen we cancel or postpone all events at a cut-off date which is usually two months before.

When we confirm an event, we send each applicant an invoice. All applicants must pay in full 28 days before the event. If your organisation wishes to make a separate arrangement and provide an official purchase order, please contact us to discuss this. We also accept last minute applications in certain circumstances.

When the applicants pay the invoice, we confirm their place and post their joining instructions and the following publications, 'Living with the Dominator' and the 'Freedom Programme Home Study Course' to use one to one with their service users. We also send a copy of the 'Freedom Programme Training Manual'.

The cost is £500.00 plus VAT. This includes refreshments and training materials. It does NOT include accommodation or lunch.
